Because he sets a constant example of integrity and devotion to duty; because he reveres the necessity of labor for worthiness; because he exemplifies in his own life the courage and purpose which he teaches; because his thirty-four years of work at Berea College have given thousands of students a chance for a better life, the members of the Senior Class dedicate the 1952 CHIMES to

 Council*

Came the spring and our thoughts turned to many things . . .

. . . an embryonic Opera Workshop presented "Hansel and Gretel" and "The Medium" . . .

. . . and in May we saw the skillfully executed formations of the Aquacade . . .

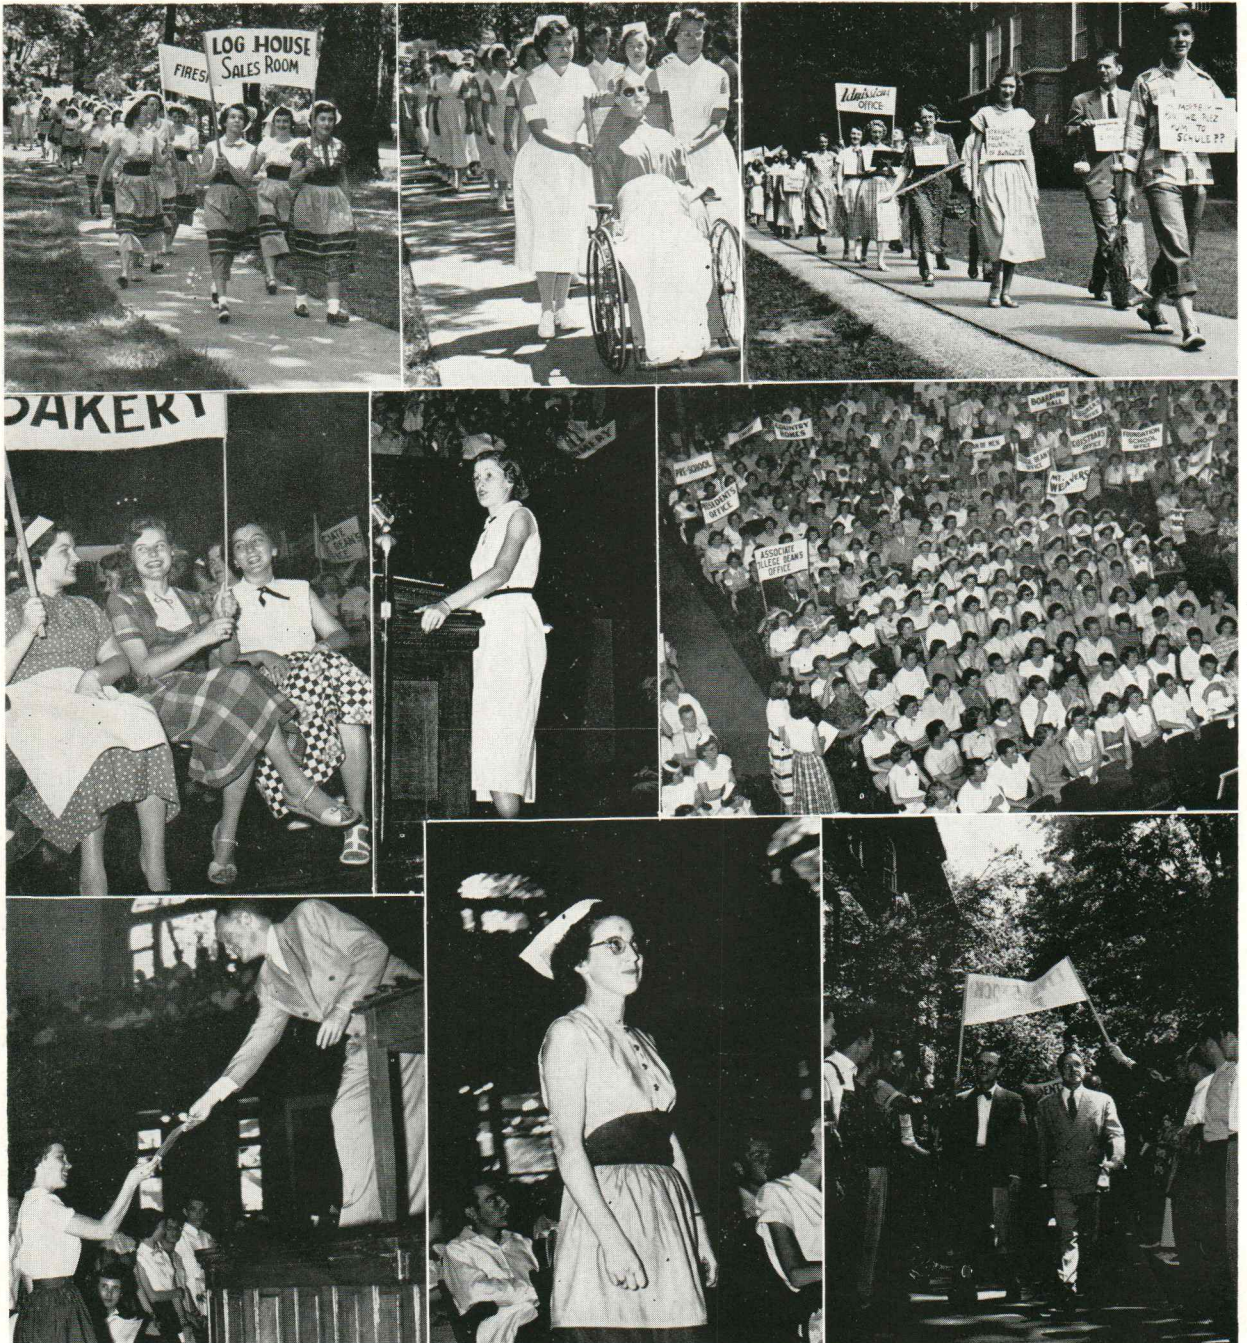

We sat in the "Gai Paris" watching the fashion parade of nations and munching hot dogs . . . and agreeing among ourselves that our first Spring Fair was quite a success . . .

Curfews were forgotten when Berea went solid G.O.P. for the Republican Convention . . . Phelps Stokes still echoes from the lusty cheers for Taft, Stassen, Warren, and for the victorious Ike . . .

It was good to hear Berea speakers on the Labor Day program . . . they speak our language and we listen . . .

MAY POLE DANCE and PYRAMIDS by Foundation, College Freshman and Sophomore Women

Plastic boots, raincoats, and umbrellas were the order of the day as the 1952 Olympics went on . . . another successful May Day to the credit of the P. E. Women . . .

THE 1952 CHIMES

YEARBOOK OF BEREA COLLEGE

531 COLLEGE STATION
BEREA, KENTUCKY

Now that the press has turned for the 21,000th time, now that the covers are firmly bound and the 1952 CHIMES has been delivered, our job is over. It wasn't all fun, but it certainly wasn't drudgery either.

We've learned a lot . . . we speak a new language now, of picas and points; bleeds and mortises; gumballs and gutters. We know now that a 5 x 7 picture just won't reduce to a 4 x 4 cut, and that it takes a heap of effort to produce 160 pages of pictures and type.

We haven't been in this thing all alone . . . we owe a lot of thanks to all the staff members who have contributed many of the ideas and most of the work involved in putting the CHIMES in the hands of its readers. Wheeler Bell has been a wizard at keeping the books in balance; Bob Baird and Rondal Mull broke the records for ad sales; Nan Sevy and her staff have sold over 1000 copies of the book; to "Pappy" Martin and "Joe Baby" Chairatana we owe a tip of our hats for a bang-up job of picture taking; and to Gerald Edmundson and "Dickie" Mitchell we express our thanks for the designs of the cover and divider pages. (Most of the staff you'll find pictured on page 7.)

A large portion of our thanks go to the people who've done business with us this year . . . Ralph Wiggington for the class portraits; the Jahn and Ollier Engraving Co. and their representative, Mr. James Oldham; and the Kingsport Press for the covers and binding. Our appreciation for the superior craftsmanship of the Berea College Press can't make up for the many overtime hours which "Pap" Adams, Elmo Anderkin, "Linky" Blanton, A. D. Trusty, and "Puny" Miracle spent in completing the book.

This '52 CHIMES isn't much like what it started out to be in September, but it's finished and we're proud of it.
